Lacrosse: Goebel's double-OT goal keeps Westborough girls unbeaten

Freshman Chloe Goebel scored four goals, including the game-winner with 1:15 remaining in the second sudden-death overtime, to keep the Westborough girls unbeaten in dramatic fashion with a 9-8 win over visiting Bromfield in a non-league showdown.

Freshman Chloe Goebel scored four goals, including the game-winner with 1:15 remaining in the second sudden-death overtime, to keep the Westborough girls unbeaten in dramatic fashion with a 9-8 win over visiting Bromfield in a non-league showdown.

Senior captain Olivia Harwood won the draw giving Westborough possession that led to Goebel's game-winner.

"Chloe led the way," said Westborough coach Colleen Debish after her team improved to 9-0. "It was a thrilling game."

Westborough's Nicole Foster had three goals. Sarah Bracey and Olivia Weckwerth had a goal each and Kaleigh Wright made 10 saves in the win.

Westborough's captain Carter Bromm, Lindsey Bromm, Casey McNamara, Grace Desmond, Harwood, Weckwerth, Peyton Brown and Wright came up with over five minutes of solid defense, including two-plus minutes in regulation with Bromfield holding possession for the last shot and also three minutes of the first overtime period.

The Rangers limited Sophia Turchetta, one of the leading scorers in CMass, to just one goal.

Bromfield dropped to 7-3 overall.

NASHOBA 14, MARLBOROUGH 13: Senior Katie Desko had six goals and one assist, and senior Ashley Desko had three goals and two assists, but Marlborough (5-7) was tipped by non-league Nashoba.

The Panthers trailed 10-5 at halftime, but inched back into the game behind the Desko's and two goals from junior Mariah Berry.

Marlborough, however, never held a lead and ran out of time before they could get the equalizer.

Sophomore Erin Doherty had a goal and an assist, freshman Morgan Raun had a goal, and sophomores Aliyah Nisbett (two assists) and Laticia Farias (one assist) contributed.

In net, senior Meghan McDonough had 11 saves for the Panthers.

Marlborough will host Grafton on Monday.

MEDFIELD 15, HOLLISTON 2: Freshmen Lauren Falley and Lily Trainor each scored a goal but Holliston (3-7, 2-5 TVL) fell to tough Tri-Valley League foe Medfield.

Senior goalie Amber Mitchell had 10 saves for the Panthers and junior Rachel Elkinson picked up an assist.

Medfield led 7-1 at halftime and controlled the game throughout against a young Holliston club.

The Panthers play Westwood on Tuesday on the road and then Medfield again on Friday in two really difficult matchups.

"It's a good opportunity to play some of the best teams," Holliston coach Tanner Guarino said. "Westwood is one of the best teams in the state and we are lucky to play such good competition."

In its first game of the year, Holliston lost 17-0 to Westwood, so Guarino is looking to get on the board early on Friday.

"It's really a learning tool," she said.

WESTWOOD 18, HOPKINTON 3: Sophomore midfielder Maggie Dolan scored twice for Hopkinton (4-5, 2-4 TVL) in a Tri-Valley League loss to powerhouse Westwood.

Junior attack Taylor Pichel added one goal and one assist for the Hillers, who will host Bellingham on Tuesday in a TVL tilt.

FOXBORO 9, ASHLAND 6: Lexi Maher had two goals, one assist and eight draw controls, and sophomore goalie Megan Moriarty made 12 saves for Ashland (3-6) in a non-league loss at Foxboro.

Sam Leone had a goal, an assist and four draw controls, and Maggie Parisi scored twice for the Clockers.

Ashland trailed 6-1 at the half.

"It was a good defensive game," said Ashland coach Siobhan Sullivan. "Our goalie played well."

Ashland hosts Dover-Sherborn on Tuesday in a Tri-Valley League game.
