

May 23, 2016 10:18PM

Print Page

Girls Lacrosse: Wellesley holds off Natick

Kiely Noonan led with netted six goals and two assists as Wellesley defeated Natick 14-11 in a closely contested Bay State Conference girl lacrosse game.

Kiely Noonan led with netted six goals and two assists as Wellesley defeated Natick 14-11 in a closely contested Bay State Conference girl lacrosse game Monday night.

Kerri Anselmo had two goals and two assists, Sarah Strand scored three goals, Meghan Rodino had two goals and an assist, and Annika Streeter scored twice for Natick. Sophomore Allie Collins made 16 saves for the Redhawks.

Caitlin Chicoski and Maddie Balter each scored three goals for Wellesley, which led 7-4 at the half after scoring three goals in the final minute of the first half.

Strand, Nicole Anselmo and Sammy Ferrera were defensive standouts for Natick (7-6), which hosts Winthrop on Tuesday at 6 p.m. in its regular season finale.”

FRAMINGHAM 17, BISHOP FENWICK 10: Senior Kate Kelly scored four goals with two assists and classmate Molly Covarrubias scored five goals with one assist as visiting Framingham (13-6) finished its regular season with a win at non-league foe Bishop Fenwick.

Junior goalie Abbie Herrman made nine saves for the Flyers, who await Friday’s tournament seeding.

WAYLAND 14, WESTFORD ACADEMY 10: Junior midfielder Abby Stoller scored five goals and assisted on another, while also winning seven draw controls, as Wayland (13-5, 10-5 DCL Large) defeated Dual County League Large foe Westford Academy.

Junior attack Kirsten Grazewski recorded three goals and one assist, while sophomore midfielder Jackie Stoller added two goals and five assists for the Warriors.

DOVER-SHERBORN 14, HOPKINTON 11: Sophomore Barrett Laird netted the game-winning goal with 6:50 remaining in the game, as she helped visiting Dover-Sherborn (12-5, 10-4 TVL) upend Tri-Valley League rival Hopkinton (9-8, 6-7 TVL).

Junior Ali Jordan scored five goals for the Raiders, who rallied to win their TVL regular season finale after trailing the Hillers 8-6 at halftime. Junior Maddie Shue scored two goals and had three assists, while junior Emma White registered three goals and an assist for D-S.

Taylor Pichel scored five goals for Hopkinton in the loss.

The Raiders will travel to Weston for their regular season finale on Wednesday night.

WESTBOROUGH 12, GRAFTON 6: Chloe Goebel scored four goals and had one assist as Westborough (15-0) stayed unbeaten with a win over non-league foe Grafton.

Grafton (14-5) kept it close, as the Rangers led 7-5 at halftime, but Westborough proved too powerful in the second half.

Captain Olivia Harwood tallied three goals and an assist and Olivia Weckwerth had two goals and two assists.

In goal, Kaleigh Wright had 15 saves for the Rangers.

LEOMINSTER 16, MARLBOROUGH 13: Senior attack Katie Desko tallied a hat trick for Marlborough, but the Panthers (8-10) fell short to non-league host Leominster in its regular season finale.

Senior midfielder Robin Laporte and sophomore attack Erin Doherty scored two goals each for the Panthers.

LITTLETON 12, NIPMUC 10: Senior Grace Martin scored five goals and junior Maggie Moss netted two of her own, but host Nipmuc (9-6) ultimately fell to Littleton in a non-league match.

Even though sophomore Jade Dougherty registered one goal and two assists, and senior Katheryn McManus finished with one goal and one assist, the Warriors never led in the second half of play.

Nipmuc will look to bounce back when it hosts non-league foe St. Bernard’s on Tuesday afternoon.

<http://www.milforddailynews.com/article/20160523/SPORTS/160528419>

Print Page